

For the following diagram, create a simple console application that can do the following activities:

1- Take pixel X & Y coordinates and resolve to the specific triangle selected by way of the row and column (using the letter and number designators shown above.)

2- For a letter and number triangle designator, produce its X & Y coordinates.

Note: Width and height should not be assumed to be the same. A pair of triangles above span multiple pixels.